

Jeroid

Jeroid, a leading alternative financial services platform, set out to strengthen its brand presence with visual content that matched the trust and clarity required in the financial space.

Tek Media was engaged to produce professional commercial video assets and event coverage that could support Jeroid's growing visibility across digital platforms and brand touchpoints.

This work involved end-to-end videography execution, from pre-production planning to on-ground filming and post-production delivery, ensuring every asset aligned with the brand's positioning and audience expectations.

The final content was developed for seamless use across online campaigns, social media, and key brand moments.

Services Delivered

Slurp Juices

Slurp Juices and Smoothies is built around freshness, flavour, and a clear health-forward lifestyle.

To support that positioning online, Tek Media managed Slurp's social media presence with a focus on consistency, audience engagement, and content that matched the brand's energy.

Our work centred on structured social media management, combining clear planning, platform execution, and growth-focused optimisation to ensure the brand stayed active, recognisable, and connected to its community.

The result was a stronger digital presence designed to keep Slurp top-of-mind and relevant across key social channels.

PU Exchange

PU Exchange is designed for people and businesses that need financial transactions to feel fast, secure, and straightforward.

In a space where trust is everything, the brand's visual communication has to be clear, professional, and credible at first glance.

Tek Media produced commercial video assets that presented PU Exchange's services with the tone and precision expected in digital finance.

The final content was developed for campaign use across social platforms and other key promotional channels.

Syinx

Syinx builds home appliances for African households that value quality, function, and modern living.

For a brand operating at that scale, the visuals matter. Product communication needs to feel premium, clear, and trustworthy.

Tek Media produced commercial videography that showcased Syinx products with the level of detail, finish, and consistency expected from a market leader.

The final assets were created for campaign use across digital platforms and brand channels, supporting both visibility and product confidence.

Review section

Chidera Okonkwo

Tek Media is one of the few teams I've worked with that actually listens before shooting anything. The final video was clean, intentional, and very on-brand.

Kunle Adegbite

The team was professional from planning through delivery. Timelines were respected, communication was efficient, and the final deliverables met expectations.

Tobi Akinyemi

We needed commercial content that didn't feel rushed or random. Tek delivered with structure. Everything looked premium from start to finish. I strongly recommend.

Akin Fashola

Working with Tek Media was seamless. Deliverables were handled with professionalism, and the final production quality was impressive.

Blessing Okafor

Tek Media brought consistency to our digital presence. Their approach is organised, measured, and focused on long-term quality.

Hauwa Ibrahim

What we appreciated most was the attention to detail and the discipline in execution. The work was clean, purposeful, and on-brand.

Mariam Sule

They operate with a level of clarity that makes collaboration easy. The output reflected both creative strength and operational discipline.
